PROCEEDINGS

The Yancey County Baptist Sunday school Convention met in its annual session with Pleasant Grove Baptist Sunday school, Friday August 9, 1912. In the absence of Rev. B. M. Davis, J. F. Sams and W. H. Sparks made short talks on the subject of Power in Unity.

Adjourned till 2 : 30 p. m.

FRIDAY EVENING.

Met according to adjournment. Prayer was offered by Brother Sams. Moderator R. W. King called the house to order for permanent organization which resulted in the election of Bro. J. S. Huskins Moderator and Willard McKinney Clerk. J. D. Hughes and S. T. Hensley were appointed reading clerks, and received and read letters from the following Sunday schools: Burnsville, Cane River, Mt. Pleasant, Riverside, Zion, Green Mountain, Double Isle, Pleasant Grove, Upper Shoal Creek, Browns' Creek and Micaville, after which the following subjects were discussed:

Can we afford to be without a Sunday school in each church? Discussed by Rev. Jesse Blalock, who said in part, that if you want dead churches you could afford to do without Sunday schools and that without one no church could prosper.

Brother R. W. King made a very impressive talk on the same subject.

What Benefits are to be derived from the Sunday school? By Rev. J. F. Sams, who said in part that one of the best means to be derived were the benefits of early training of children. As the twig is bent so is the tree inclined; if you start the child right it is most sure to go right.

For whom is the Sunday school intended? Opened by Rev. Sheridan Briggs from French Broad Association, who said that most people, especially the older ones, think that the Sunday school is for the younger ones; but that they imply this not by word but action; that the Sunday school is for all, from the infant to the octogenarian. Bros. Hensley and Sparks made some pointed talks on same subject. Adjourned till Saturday 9 a. m. Prayer by S. T. Hensley.

SATURDAY A. M.

Met according to adjournment at 9 o'clock. Devotional exercise was conducted by Rev. R. W. King, reading Scripture lesson and prayer by Rev. W. H. Sparks.

The house was called to order at 9 : 30 and the following subjects were discussed:—

Should churches employ pastors who are not in touch with Sunday school work?

Opened by Bro. J. S. Huskins who made a very impressive talk on this subject, and in part said that he did not believe that any church ought to employ a pastor who was not in close touch with Sunday school work and was prompt in attendance, and that he believed that the time would soon dawn that all who are not in touch would be asked to stand aside. S. T. Hensley said that it was his opinion that this was the chief cause of so many dead Sunday schools and churches and hoped that all pastors had this cause at heart like Brother Sams who made the assertion that he would not pastor any church that had no Sunday school.

How may we obtain more hearty co-operation in the Sunday schools from the ministry?

Brother Blalock opened discussion of this question by saying that one reason of the lack of ministerial co-operation was failure of proper action on part of the churches; that it is all work and no pay and that the fault is in the church rather than in the ministry. Brother Sparks also made some pointed remarks.

How may we obtain better methods of teaching?

Opened by S. J. Angel. He made a very impressive talk and gave his plans and methods which he as a teacher had been following. He said the way to get superior teaching was to take the normal course prepared and recommended by the Sunday school Board; that all teachers desiring to be better prepared could do so by reading, and that there is an opportunity for all who desire to become more efficient teachers. Short talks by Bros. Randolph, Sparks and Briggs.

Prayer by Bro. Sams.

The hour having arrived for preaching Bro. Sheridan Briggs preached a very interesting sermon from the text: And Isreal was greatly impoverished. He dwelt largely upon Christian people lining up for battle, and being found at their posts.

Adjourned till 1 : 30; benediction by Bro. Sams.

AFTERNOON.

Met at 1 : 30. Thirty minutes prayer and song service. Prayers offered by Brothers Henson and Blalock.

The Convention was called to order at 2 o' clock and the following subjects discussed:

Who is responsible for the weakness in our Sunday schools?

Discussed by Brother J. F. Sams. He said that to a great extent the mothers are responsible, and went on to show the influence that the woman had over the man, and often failed to use her influence in trying to lead husband and son to the Sunday school.

Should we use Literature?

Opened by Jessie Blalock. His was an impressive talk on this subject, and showed very clearly that no Sunday school could afford to do without Literature. Prof. E. E. Hawkins followed with a short but very impressive lesson.

Christian Education.

Discussed by Prof. Hawkins. The Professor drew the lines and showed the difierent kinds of education;—the one that would count and the one that would not; told of the different kinds of boy, and the reasons and very clearly showed that the mule often has better training than the boy, saying that we are careful to begin with the mule when he is young and leave the child alone until he is too old sometimes to train. S. T. Hensley said a few words about education and what the Yancey Collegiate Institute was doing and pleaded with the people for co-operation.

Informal discussions on plans of superintending and teaching, by S. J, Angel, R. W. King and S T. Hensley.

Adjourned till Sunday 9 a. m.

Prayer by S. T. Hensley.

SUNDAY.

Assembled Sunday morning and thirty minutes time was devoted to song and praise service and discussion of the Sunday school lesson. S. T. Hensley then gave an address on General Sunday school Work in which he very forcibly impressed the idea that all churches should select superintendents for their respective Sunday schools, and that when a good man is once installed, to not organize every quarter, but only once a year.

He urged the necessity of thorough preparation on all who teach and cautioned parents that if they desired to keep their children out of the jails, chaingangs and penitentiary, to keep them in Sunday school, where if they are kept, it will not be difficult to get them into the church.

Brother Briggs made a brief talk.

Brother Sams preached a very instructive sermon from the subject, A troubled sea and troubled soul.

AN APPEAL FROM OUR SUPERINTENDENT.

Dear Superintendents:

I come to you through the Minute, and ask that you put forth every effort to make the coming year the best one yet in the history of the Sunday schools of Yancey County. This can be accomplished if we only will.

We want to urge upon every Superintendent to take collections each day for some object. Train the young as well as the old that it is their duty to give, and that the giving is not only helping them, but helping others. The Good Book tells us that it is more blessed to give than to receive, but ostensibly we do not believe it; if we do, we do not act. I believe it is just as important that we give of our means to support the gospel and the orphan, as it is that we pray to live right.

The Association will appoint some one as your County Superintendent of Sunday schools. I take this method of thanking all who have responded to the calls I have made during the four years I have served as your Superintendent and for the courteous treatment I have received, and for one and all, I bespeak for you a great year's work.

Yours Fraternally

S. T. HENSLEY,

Co. Supt. S. S.

Report of County Sunday School Superintendents.

To the Yancey County Baptist Sunday School Convention, in session with Cane River Baptist Church, Cane River, N. C.

We, the undersigned County Superintendents, appointed by the Association to visit the Sunday schools of Yancey County beg to file the following report.

We have visited every Baptist Sunday school in Yancey County. We have visited some of the Sunday schools more than once.

We are glad to say that there has been some advancemt in some of the schools during the past year. Some of the Sunday schools have put on Study Courses in the Normal Manual, as a result we now have several teachers and officers who hold Normal Course Diplomas. This preparation means that they are prepared to do more efficient work. We trust that there will be many more of the teachers and officers will take this course during the coming year. We also trust that grading the Sunday schools will dwell in the minds of our leaders that it will soon become a reality.

We are glad to say that there are several Sunday schools that are now graded. Mt. Mitchell graded theirs this year, and we notice that those that are graded are doing better work and reaching more children than they were before they were graded. We hope that very soon all the Sunday schools will be graded, for we know that it is the desire of every Sunday school to reach as many of her people as she possibly can. It seems that worldly pleasure and the love of money is getting stronger than the love we have for the children that God has put in our care.

In checking up we find that the young people attend Sunday School better than the older ones. This ought not to be so, for the older Christians should be a living example for the rising generation. God does not excuse age.

Beginning on time is one of the most important factors in Sunday school success. We find that those that begin on time do better work and have more interest than those who begin at the later hour.

We find that there are thirty two working Sunday schools in the County. We also find that there has been more interest during the winter months for the past year and more Sunday schools kept open during the entire year than there was last year. Let each of us pray that there will be an all-year-round Sunday school in every one of our churches in the future.

The Sunday schools of the County have paid on our expenses as follows:

Bald Creek	$ .60	Ivy Gap	$00.00
Bakers Creek	00.00	Jacks Creek	00.00

Our Sunday schools are making some progress but there is room for much more to be done. May we heed the call to service Many thanks to Moderator of the Sunday school Convention, J. S. Huskins, for his loyalty and service toward us in the Sunday school work.

S. E. TILSON,
J. H. BLACK.

10:45 a.m.—Subject: "Young People Reaching Young People for Christ." Discussed in a very interesting and appealing manner by Miss Mamie Hensley, showing the duties of young people aud the wonderful help they might be in the Kingom.

11:00 a.m.—Subject: "Adults Enlisting Men for Christ." An introduction was given by Rev. J. E. Hensley and the subject was continued by Rev. S.T. Hensley. He made a strong appeal to the older Christians to be faithful to the call and commands of God in enlisting those who profess to be Christians. He also stressed the value of example on the parts of older men and women. Brother Hensley also used another subject, "Saving the Saved." He made a powerful appeal to the stronger followers of Christ to help strengthen the weaker ones, helping to guide and direct their ways.

11:30 a.m —Massmeeting. The Moderator made a splendid talk on the need of co-operative effort in our Sunday school work done by our two County Superintendents; praising them for the efforts they have put forth during the three years service. He also praised them for their faithfulness and loyalty. He urged the Convention to keep the same Superintendents in office another year, stating that when we have good men to keep them in as long as we can, and if we should have bad ones that we should hasten to get rid of them as early as possible He called them all to make talks and some did, on the subject of literature, saying that he had been informed that some Sunday schools used other kinds or none at all. Use only Baptist literature and invite all persons to come in and join you in running purely Baptist Sunday schools.

Brother H.G. Bailey gave a report on his Sunday school at Burnsville. He also stressed the use of the "Sunday school Builder" for every superintendent, and the other magazines for the officers and teachers, showings how it will enable them to do better work. Brother Bailey also urged the Sunday school to be more liberal in supporting the County Superintendents.

Brother J.W. McIntosh gave a splendid report from the Mt. Pleasant Sunday school. He also made some fine remarks on Sunday school works, showing how to be a power for God in His great work.

Brother Ran Thomas gave a report from Double Island Sunday school.

Brother Leander Robinson gave a report from Windom Sunday school.

Each of these brethren seem to be deeply interested.

Dismissed by Bro. B. T. Nanney.

Saturday Evening Session.

1:45—"Making the Lesson Real in the life of The Pupil" Discussed by Rev. R.E. Powell. This discussion was very interesting. His real motive was on the part of the teacher, whose duty it was to keep the pupils interested.

2:15— Subject: "Sunday schools as the big Business of Winning Souls to Christ." Discussed by Rev. D.J. Jamerson. He impressed upon the minds of the people the value and importanance of Sunday school training; and that the Sunday schools is a direct means of winning souls to Christ.

2: 45—Business and adjournment The Moderator asked for a collection for the County Superintendents. The amount was $3.87-
